

Mount Baker Council - Activity Fee Family Plan Form

Typical Family Plan - 12 Month Membership

The Council Activity Fee family plan is set at full fee for the first $200 for an immediate family within the same household (example - two youth members and two adults for 12 months). Once the threshold of $200 is reached by a family during the charter year, each additional registered member/leader will be $10 for the remainder of the charter year. Lion and Tiger Adult Partners are non-paid leaders; they will not be charged the Activity Fee. Volunteers that are solely registered with the BSA as a Merit Badge Counselors are not charged a Council Activity Fee.

*For families with youth and/or adult members with primary registrations in multiple units: See additional instructions.

 Additional Instructions with for families with youth and/or adult members with primary registrations in multiple units.

In some cases, families may have children and adult partners that are primarily registered in multiple units. When this occurs, please follow these steps to complete the payment of Activity Fees and receive the Family Fee limit.

- 1 Complete the Activity Fee Family form for each member of the specific units.
- 2 Give the appropriate form to the leadership of each unit. You may also give a duplicate form to the other unit(s) your family members are primarily registered with for the next charter year.
- 3 Families should pay the Activity Fee in full for the members of the specific unit with whom they are primarily registered.

* (cont.) Additional Instructions with for families with youth and/or adult members with primary registrations in multiple units:

- 4 When the family annually registers, they will submit the full activity fees along with the Activity Fees Family Form.
- 5 When the Council Registrar reconciles the charters and the fees, the fees of a family will be reviewed and excess funds over the Family Fee (along with any extra members at $10 each) will be sent back to the unit for redistribution back to the appropriate parties, unless prior arrangements have been made with the Council.
